Grecian Armies Pushing Northward. Change of Turkish Commanders Today. The Powers Are Ready to Intefera.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

London, May 23.—Reliable news of the war situation is at hand today. The Greek charge-de-affaires here has received a dispatch from Athens today giving the exact situation on the Thessalian frontier where the hostile armies are facing each other.

In the direction of Thessaly toward Revent and Boughazi the Greek forces have penetrated into Turkish territory and advanced towards Damasi. All attacks by the Turks have been repulsed in the direction of Gritzovali. The Greek army has a strong position at Mati, where there has been fighting since yesterday.

The Greeks had to retire from Nezeoror, falling back on the banks of the Dorchi, a strong position, which they are now defending. In Epirus the Greek army is advancing and has captured Fort Imarot and several villages. The Greeks have also occupied Salagor. The army is now advancing northward.

Constantinople, 12 m., April 23.—Turkey is hastening to increase her forces at the front. An additional force has been called out to reinforce the Turkish troops in field today. It is now definitely announced that Osman Pasha, the hero of Plevonia has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Turkish army with headquarters at Elassona. Edem Pasha, the present commander, has been recalled.

In addition Saad Edem Pasha has been appointed commander of the Turkish army at Janta, replacing Ahemd Hifai Pasha, recalled. The new commanders start for their posts tonight. The reason of these important changes are not made public.

Brussels, April 23.—It is definitely announced today that all the powers have given adhesion to the note of the Russian minister assuring the Greeks and Turks of the friendly interference of the Powers in the present struggle as soon as asked for by either side.

London, April 23.—The war news received from the special correspondents of the London papers published this morning is meager and somewhat conflicting. The only certainty seems to be that Tyrnavo has not yet fallen, but Nezeros is in the hands of the Turks.

The Chronicle's Athens correspondent says that the Greeks have retreated from Mati.

According to The Times' correspondent at Athens, the result of the fighting which has been raging furiously at Mati would decide the fate of Larissa, and if the Turks capture Mati, Tyrnavo must fall

A telegram from Larisse, dated 5 o'clock last evening, says that 10,000 Turks are engaged and that the Crown Prince Constantine has arrived on the scene of action. The Greeks are maintaining their positions.

All the dispatches from Athens admit that the situation is extremely grave. Fighting appears to be going on along the whole frontier line. It is rumored there that the king will start for Larissa on Monday next.

The western division of the Greek fleet has sailed from Loucas for the coast of Epirus, with the design of fomenting a revolt among the Albanians.

It is said that Hofe Pasha will resign the command of the Turkish fleet if it is ordered to leave the Dardanelles. He is said to have declared the vessels "quite unfit for active operations."

A dispatch to The Times from Tyrnavo describes the arrival of its correspondent there. He says "All the roads are crowded with fugitives and with horses and thousands of sheep, making for the eastern highlands of Ossa. The Greeks attacked Boughazi last evening and carried the pass this morning. They have also captured the Turkish fort of Vigila and are now on the road to Damasi."

Bulgaria Threatens Turkey.

Constantinople, April 23.—The sultan's ministers are a great deal more deeply concerned in the sudden strong move which has been made by Bulgaria than they are in the fighting which is going on in Thessaly.

Immediately after the actual breaking out of war became known the Bulgarian agent in Constantinople, M. Marcoff, obtained an interview with the sultan and informed his majesty that unless berettas for five more Bulgarian bishops in Macedonia and the nomination of Bulgarian commercial agents at Uskub and Monastir were granted at once, Bulgaria would begin mobilizing her army on Saturday.

On the following day M. Marcoff repeated his statements, which amounted to an ultimatum on the part of Bulgaria.

The sultan sought to temporize with the Bulgarian agent, and the Russian embassador also told M. Marcoff that the moment for such action on the part of Bulgaria was inopportune, but Bulgaria nevertheless persists in her determination to mobilize her army if her demands are not complied with.

The action of M. Marcoff recalls the cordiality of the interview between Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria and the German emperor, which took place in Berlin on Tuesday, and Prince Ferdinand's subsequent conference with Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, the German minister of foreign affairs, as well as the cordiality characterizing the kaiser's reception in Vienna, inducing the belief that he is seeking to play a sensational Deus ex machina.

The principality of Bulgaria was created by the treaty of Berlin in 1878. It pays tribute to Turkey, but the people choose their own sovereign, who is appointed by the sultan with the consent of the powers. The population of the country is more than 60 per cent Greek Catholics, the remainder being Mohammedans and Jews. Bulgaria maintains a standing army, which on a peace footing numbers 34,000 men. The war strength of the army with the addition of reserves would be 185,000. The government has orders being filled for 65,000 Austrian Mannlicher rifles. Since Prince Ferdinand ascended the throne great improvement has been made in the military service.

The Fighting Before Larissa.

Larissa, April 23.—The fighting continues on the Thessalian plains with apparently little vantage gained by either contesting army. The Greeks under Prince Constantine are holding their positions, and in some quarters have turned back the tide of Turkish invasion.

The Greek evzones and a mountain battery, having ascended the mountains east of the St. George monastery, were taken by the Turks on the flank. After a severe fight, lasting many hours, the Turks, who had driven the Greeks from Mati and Ligaria, brought 280 Circassian cavalry from Elassona. The Circassians began to extend into the plain; but being raked by the Greek Colonel Mastropas' battery and by the evzones, they were compelled to fall back on Ligaria with great loss.

A portion of the fleeing Turks have recrossed the Milouna pass toward Elassona. The Greek infantry, extending in a semicircle from Tyrnavo to Karavali and supported by artillery, all well handled, after a hard day's fighting drove back the Turks upon Ligaria. It is understood that the latter are retreating in force toward Elassona.

The estimation in which the Turks are held is shown by the stampede of the whole population on the frontier. The villages and roads to Larissa are literally blocked with fugitives, herds of cattle, horses and donkeys, women and children on foot, old women carrying chairs, beds and household gear on their backs, on donkeys, in ox wagons and in every conceivable sort of vehicle.

The scene is heartrending and reminds one of Pliny's description of the flight from Pompeii after the eruption of Mount Vesuvius

Larissa is overcrowded, food is scarce, the hospitals are full, and there is an urgent appeal for nurses and surgical assistance. The wounded are arriving hourly, and all the surgical operations must be performed without chloroform, as there is none to be had.

Chief Davellis and the survivors of his band of irregulars have returned here from their raid into Macedonia.

Four hundred members of the Foreign legion including 26 Englishmen, under Captain Birch, have arrived here. They were received with a great demonstration, which was repeated on their departure for the front. Intense enthusiasm was caused among the Greeks when the Englishmen sang the Greek national war songs

The latest news from the district of Gritzovali is that the place has been recaptured by the Greeks.

Two Important Nominations Decided Upon Today.

[Special dispatch to the Transcript.]

Washington, April 23.—President McKinley today decided to nominate William R. Day of Canton, O., as first assistant secretary of state, and ex-Representative Bellamy Storer of Cincinnati as minister to Belgium.

This disposes of the famous Foraker fight on Storer, who was candidate for first assistant of state. And Mr. Day will not be a special agent to Cuba.

The House to be Represented.

Washington, April 23.—The house has adopted a resolution for the appointment of a committee of 25 with the Speaker as chairman to attend the Grant tomb exercises in New York Saturday.

GAVE $25,000 BAIL.

The Ex-Turkish Consul for Boston Arraigned Today.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

Boston, April 23.—Joseph A. Iasigi, the ex-Turkish consul for Boston, was arraigned in the superior court this morning, charged with embezzling $135,000 from the trust fund. He pleaded not guilty, and was held in $25,000. He was released on bail.

The bond furnished by the embezzling consul is one of the largest ever given in Boston by any accused person.

A $250,000 Fire Today.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

Binghamton, N. Y., April 23.—A fire started in some unknown manner at Whitney's, a point 20 miles north of this city this morning. It destroyed property estimated at $250,000. The insurance is estimated at $80,000.

ATTACK ON HUMBERT

A Political Fanatic Attempts to Stab the King.

THE DAGGER AVOIDED BY RISING.

The King, Unhurt, Proceeded on His Way Unconcerned, and on His Arrival at His Destination Was Greatly Cheered—Was His Second Escape.

Rome, April 22.—An attempt has been made to assassinate King Humbert of Italy.

While King Humbert was on his way to the races, a man named Piotro Acciarito, an ironworker out of employment, attempted to stab his majesty with a dagger. King Humbert was accompanied by his aid-de-camp, General Pondis Vaglia, and was going to witness the Royal Derby. His assailant, who was waiting outside St. John's gate, rushed up to the carrige in which his majesty was seated and attempted to stab him. The king avoided the dagger by rising from his seat.

Acciarito, seeing he had failed in his attempt to assassinate the king, threw away his dagger and was immediately arrested by two carbineers, while his majesty calmly ordered his coachman to drive on.

On arriving at the race course his majesty was greatly cheered.

The news spread with great rapidity, and when the king reached the royal stand at the race course it was soon surrounded by a cheering multitude. The members of the diplomatic corps present and a number of other distinguished people sent their congratulations to the king on his escape.

King Humbert treated the matter lightly and remarked:

"It is only one of the little advantages of my trade."

The king remained at the race course with his nephew, the Duke of Aosta, until the Royal Derby was run.

His majesty then returned to the quirinal, followed by hundreds of carriages and thousands of people gathered about the palace, who gave the king an imposing and frantic ovation. They called for the royal hymn, and the band of the guard on duty at the palace played it repeatedly.

Tickets for Gen. John B. Gordon's lecture are for sale at all drugstores. To secure reserved seats, they must be exchanged at Hasting's drug store on Monday or Tuesday. The sale of reserved seats ceases on Tuesday evening.

To Accommodate the Public.

The North Adams and Blackinton teams will "play ball" on Lawsonian field Saturday afternoon and the Hoosac Valley Street Railroad company will do its best to accommodate the public in the way of providing transportation facilities. It will, however, probably be impossible to furnish cars to carry all who will want to go, which will be "all at once," and therefore it is well to announce that the Boston & Albany trains, which stop at the grounds, leave North Adams at 3 o'clock, and returning, leave the grounds at 5.20. As the game does not begin till 3 15, this affords good accommodation and those who find themselves crowded out of the street cars will have a remedy. In time of a general turnout, such as there is likely to be Saturday afternoon, it will be well for people to remember that there is more than one way to reach Lawsonian field.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Clan McIntyre's fine concert tonight at Columbia opera house.

—Francis Murphy will hold a meeting for children Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Congregational church at Williamstown.

—The annual banquet of the Universalist parish and the annual rental of sittings will be held this evening. An interesting program has been arranged.

—Messrs. George Hopkins and William M. Burch are the committee appointed to secure contributions from St. John's congregation for Mr. Murphy's temperance work in North Adams.

—The first social of W. E. Cady's dancing school occurred in Division 10 hall on Eagle street Thursday evening. About 25 couples were present. Dancing was indulged in from 9 until 12.

—At the Father Mathew tournament Thursday evening Timothy Buckley 87 defeated Charles Lucier 100. The score resulted Buckley 87, Lucier 86. Some fine plays were made by both men.

—Hon. F. F. Phillips of Somerville, member of the legislature, will be at the Francis Murphy meeting tonight and speak. Mr. Phillips is a particular friend of Mr. Murphy, a gifted speaker and will be well worth hearing.

—A slight blaze occurred in J. W. Valentine's store on Main street Thursday evening about 7 o'clock. One of the clerks happened to go in the store at that time and discovered some waste burning and extinguished it before serious damage resulted.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Downe of Holbrook street entertained six tables of whist at her home Thursday evening.

F. S. Rice and A. H. Potter of Greenfield returned Thursday evening from an extended trip through California.

Mrs. A. E. Dubois of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., formerly of this city, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Mae Rice has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

F. L. Tilton, grand chaplin, attended the 19th annual session of the grand council of the Royal arcanum which was opened in Boston yesterday afternoon.

ESCAPED FROM CONCORD.

Was One of Chief Kendall's Captures. Greylock Store Robber.

Edward Carlow, who with Walter Worthington was arrested by Chief Kendall last fall for breaking and entering the Greylock store, escaped from Concord reformatory Thursday night. He and Worthington were sentenced to the reformatory for an indefinite period at the January term of court in Pittsfield.

Carlow was engaged in the boiler room with a first grade prisoner named Mathew Hayden, who also escaped by climbing a 25 foot wall. Carlow is described as being 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighs 141, black hair, blue eyes and large features. A reward of $50 is offered for his arrest.

Grand Army Notes.

The committee has decided that the Grand Army fair will positively close tomorrow night, after a very successful run since it opened. The piano and bicycle contests will close at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening. Each contestant will please have their books and money ready to turn in at that time. The returns on all season tickets should be made this evening as far as possible that all coupons may be gathered up.

Tuttle & Bryant have received the contract for furnishing all the carpets, rugs, curtains and window shades to be placed in the new building.

The last stage entertainment to be given during the fair will be put on tonight. It will be a farce entitled "Guarding the G. A. R. Treasure." It is especially arranged for the occasion by John Merritt and John Mulany. Dancing will follow to the tuneful music of Clapp's orchestra.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The regulars had a practice game on the fair grounds Thursday afternoon with a picked nine. Burt, Yerkes and Bresnehan, the three pitchers were each tried. They are in good condition and are anxious for a chance to show their ability.

Dan Lucy, the catcher, of the regulars, came from Hoosick Falls, N. Y. He plays ball every minute of the game and has the making of a crack catcher.

Captain Scharf mislaid his glove at the fair grounds Thursday afternoon and was unable to find it when the game was over. He will pay a reward for its return to him at the Mansion house.

Williams plays Wesleyan at Middletown this afternoon and Yale at New Haven Saturday.

The Blackintons will meet the regulars on Lawsonian field Saturday afternoon. Game called at 3 15 o'clock.

Arbor Day.

One of the principal objects of Arbor day is that the cities and towns may have a special time set apart to do something in the way of ornamentation. It is hoped that this city will not let the day pass this year without improving it. Shade trees should be set out on the new state highway and on as many other drives as it is possible to procure trees for. Elms, by all means, as they are the most hardy. North Adams should not be behind other towns and cities in the commonwealth in so important a matter, as the ornamentation of her public drives. The new road at Greylock was opened in 1891 and not a tree has been set yet.

Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary Meeting.

The adjourned meeting of the Woman's auxiliary was held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors Thursday afternoon. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. B. E. Lovejoy acted as secretary pro-tem. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. J. B. Pierce. The secretary's report was read and accepted. There was no report of the treasurer. Mrs. Anna S. Whitaker was made chairman of the membership committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Veazie.

It was voted to hold a birthday social at the meeting in June, the details to be arranged by the social committee. After singing "God be with you till we meet again" the meeting adjourned.

ONCE A NORTH ADAMS PASTOR.

Now Charged With Immorality by the Troy M. E. Conference.

The Troy M. E. Conference went into executive session Thursday at Schenectady to consider charges of immorality against the Rev. Hubbard C. Farrar, D. D., who is one of the leading men in the conference. He has been pastor of churches in North Adams (and preached here only a few Sabbaths ago) Troy, Gloversville, Watervliet, and is now in charge of St. Luke's, Albany.

Dr. Farrar's reputation is not limited to his own conference. As a lecturer he has always been in demand, and as a Sunday school worker he is known all over the country. He has been president of the New York State Sunday School association for several years. He is a member of the national executive board of the Christian Endeavor society, and has been a leading figure at the society's conventions. He is also president of the Round Lake Assembly.

A former servant girl is the complainant against Dr. Farrar charging him with having had immoral relations with her. She is now a mother.

Dr. Farrar was not present at the executive session Thursday. For an hour and a half the case was discussed with much spirit. It was the unanimous opinion of those present that Dr. Farrar should not be allowed to resign and that he should be placed on trial as soon as possible. At the request of Dr. Coleman, who has charge of the prosecution, an adjournment was taken until today when a committ of 13 was appointed to take evidence.

It is reported that Dr. Farrar will place in Dr. Coleman's hands a written confession and that it will be read at today's session. Dr. Farrar is a grandfather and has always seemed to be a devoted husband.

LATER.

(By Associated Press.)

Cohenectady, N. Y., April 23.—Rev. Dr. H. C. Farrar, ex-pastor of St. Lukes church, Albany, was today expelled from the Methodist Episcopal church and the ministery, by the Troy conference. The charges of immoral conduct were sustained.

GRAND ARMY FAIR.

Attendance Larger Thursday Evening than on Any Other Night.

The attendance at the Grand Army fair Thursday evening exceeded that of any previous night. The program published in the Transcript Thursday was very acceptably rendered and afterwards dancing was indulged in till midnight. The receipts from single admission tickets at 15 cents amounted to over $50, which shows that the interest in the fair and the attendance is all that could be expected.

The veterans of the post are greatly pleased with the success of the fair thus far and are confident that the attendance and receipts this evening and Saturday night will be fully up to expectations.

There will be dancing again this evening in addition to the various other attractions, and as all of the stores will be closed the attendance will probably be larger than ever.

Let no one forget that Francis Murphy will be present Saturday evening and make a short address. Mr. Murphy is in full sympathy with the effort of the veterans to secure a home of their own and will do what he can Saturday evening to help along a good cause. His visit to the fair, however, will not interfere with the regular temperance meeting at Odd Fellows hall.

The fair closes Saturday night. There is sure to be a crowd at that time, and there will also be a large attendance this evening. Let everybody improve the remaining opportunities to help the old soldiers and incidentally to have a first-rate time.

Orchestral Concert.

The Methodist Sunday school orchestra will give a concert at the church Friday evening, May 7. The orchestra will be assisted by friends, making an orchestra of from 18 to 20 pieces, and the entertainment will be one of much merit. In solo work the orchestra will be assisted by Walter Stafford, violinist, and Clarence Russell, cornist, both of Pittsfield. These musicians are well known throughout the county as leaders in their lines and they will contribute much to the success of the concert. Mr. Stafford has won recognition in New York city and the Sunday school orchestra feels that it has been especially fortunate in securing him for this occasion. Further particulars will be given later.

Drury '98 Hop Tonight.

The annual hop of the Junior class of Drury high school will be held this evening in Odd Fellows' hall. The Schubert Orchestral club will furnish music. The reception committee will be Miss Mae Rice, Miss Bessie Cutting, Miss Grace Clark, Miss Agnes Brown, Miss Ella Washburn, James Robinson, Eugene Coughlin, Homer Bartlett, Winfield Dennett and Kent Burrows. The patroness will be Mrs. J. A. Rice, Mrs. C. H. Cutting, Mrs. A. W. Hunter, Mrs. E. W. Blackinton, Mrs. Arthur Robinson, Mrs. Gadsby, Mrs. W. G. Cady, Mrs. Mark E. Couch, Mrs. O. J. Brown, Mrs. Albert Whitham and Mrs. Robert Schouler. Frederic B. Warren will be floor manager, and James Robinson, Eugene Coughlin, Owen Welch and Winfield Dennett will act as aids. The dances given during the winter under the direction of the young people have been very successful and tonight's event promises to be the same.

THE END OF THE JUDGESHIP MATTER.

Governor Wolcott has appointed Carlton T. Phelps to be the successor of Hon. Shepherd Thayer as judge of the district court of Northern Berkshire. We have repeatedly said in these columns that Governor Wolcott could be trusted to do the wisest thing in the matter, and so the event has proved. In order to show disapproval of all the original scheming to defeat or embarrass Mr. Phelps and to mark the silly resolutions with his disapproval, Governor Wolcott has appointed the man who said he could not accept the judgeship as the one had tendered it. This action of Governor Wolcott speaks his judgment of the whole long affair which now ends in the signal defeat of the objects and purposes of the legal schemers. All of their recent trips to Boston could not save their plans, nor influence the governor in any degree.

The long contest has ended in a right appointment of a man who will make a good judge and who feels that he will enter upon the office untrammeled save by the dictates of honor. The contest has been worth all that it cost—the defeat of unworthy purposes within the bar and the saving of the dignity of the office.

There is no need now to review all the details of the long and persistent effort made by the TRANSCRIPT to bring about the result accomplished. We leave the judgment of the whole case, so far as we are concerned, to the good sense of the public. With no personal feeling against any individual and with only the desire that no unworthy motives should succeed in choosing a judge and that the silly resolutions should be discredited and discountenanced, the TRANSCRIPT now bows a farewell to the judgeship matter, taking very considerable satisfaction in the result that has seemed certain ever since the case rested in the governor's hands.

Is there any one who does not sigh relief now that the judgeship matter is settled right?

If the Turks and Greeks will lay off a day, there will be an opportunity to correct the returns.

The baseball ball has opened everywhere, and pity the man who can't enjoy it, for he must now endure it.

Pittsfield has recently discussed the matter of dissolving it board of trade. But the Pittsfield board will still live.

Now for a few stories of all kinds about the judgeship, what has been said and what has not been said,—then, calm and peace.

Mayor Carter H. Harrison seems to be tinctured with Cevelandism, too. He will enforce municipal civil service in Chicago.

Whether the senate be good or bad in itself is not the main point now. The passage of the tariff bill is what the people want.

The TRANSCRIPT could say some very exultant and crowing things today about the judgeship matter. But it does not need to do so. The public knows.

American law is too slow. Why should a murderer like Kelly be left for months to attract public attention and arouse morbid sentiment before being tried?

The TRANSCRIPT saw a good deal farther than the end of its own nose in the judgeship contest. It saw a good deal farther than the legal schemers did, thank you.

Foreign manufacturers and producers continue to complain of the Dingley bill. This fact increases the demand by home manufacturers and producers for its prompt enactment.

In assailing civil service as a humbug those congressmen are but echoing the sentiments of all that estimable company of aspiring patriots who have a claim upon them for political services rendered.

The Bailey and Bryan forces in the House of Representatives are "resting on their arms." But neither is asleep. Bailey and his lieutenants are on the alert, and are able to defeat the Bryanites at every turn.

Harold M. Sewall, appointed minister to Hawaii by President McKinley; Arthur Sewall, the father of Harold M., the candidate for vice-president on the last national Democratic ticket: politics must be somewhat mixed in the Sewall family.

The Greco-Turkish complication is growing interesting enough. Russia is preparing to act. That may mean the culmination of Russia's long cherished plan of many years—possession of the Dardanelles. Keep an eye on the heir.

The Greeks are in Turkish Epirus, the Turks are in Grecian Thessaly. Larissa, the Greek headquarters, is now the center of the battle scene that is daily being enacted on the frontier. There is the key to the situation and the Turks are dangerously near it.

Far and wide, often and loudly the North Adams public was told that the TRANSCRIPT had defeated its own candidate, Mr. Phelps, for the judgeship. What do some people think about the matter now? Are they whistling on the same side at present?

Though Mr. Woodhead will not be judge, yet he had a handsome endorsement of many good citizens. Mr. Ashe has the satisfaction of knowing that he was paid the same compliment. And neither of these gentlemen were candidates of their own seeking.

The appointment by President McKinley of three bimetallists, two of them Republicans, to negotiate for an international silver conference, has led to a revival of the history of the former silver conferences, which shows that the Republican party has been the prime mover in bringing about all former international bi-metallic conferences.

A patient, long-suffering outside public will rejoice that the absurd North Adams squabble over a police justice has at last been settled by Gov. Wolcott. It appears to have been sensibly settled, too. Now let peace brood over northern Berkshire, bar and press included. We shall all be thankful for a rest.—Springfield Republican.

Yes, and thanks to the Republican for its share in the "squabble." It was on the right side.

W. S. Holman, "the watchdog of the treasury," is dead. He passed away in Washington Thursday afternoon after an illness of several weeks at the age of 75 years, and after he had been a member of all the congresses from the 36th to the 55th—a term of nearly 40 years. Despite all the criticism of Mr. Holman's continual attack on governmental appropriations, he was a valuable public man and a patriot. He saved the treasury millions of dollars, and he was not working for himself. Peace to his ashes, and may there be no hurrying appropriations where he has gone, to "object" no more.

The Southern Democrats who are now favoring protection must have been reading the remarks of John C. Calhoun on the tariff of 1816, when he said: "When our manufactures are grown to a certain perfection, as they will be under the fostering care of the government, * * the farmer will find a ready market for his surplus products and a certain and cheap supply for all his wants; prosperity will diffuse itself through all the country." Calhoun only abandoned this theory when he found that manufacturing industries were not being established in the South to thus benefit the farmers of that section. Now that manufactures are springing up in the South, the theory of protecting them and thus aiding the agriculturist is again taking possession of the Southern mind.

P. J. Ashe has nothing whatever to regret in his candidacy for the judgeship. He did not seek the honor. He was made a candidate by the bar. In all the contest he has acted the man. No one will charge him with unfair action or unworthy motives. He comes out of the contest clean and above reproach. His ability and fitness for the office have not been questioned. But the fact that he had the support of the bar when it had stultified itself by the silly resolutions, which he himself had supported, and because he had members of that bar active in his support who were not thoroughly trusted, made his candidacy weak. It made it such that the TRANSCRIPT for one certainly could not support it, as otherwise this paper would have been glad to do. The silly resolutions and those advocating them defeated him. The fact of his being a Democrat could not alone have done it. Not at all.

The License Board Meeting.

The license commissioners held the last meeting to hear remonstrances Thursday evening. No complaints were filed. Several additional applications for licenses were received. The commissioners were requested not to grant licenses for location on the east side of State street.

The special session which was to have been held this evening to consider the complaint preferred against O. W. Welch for selling to a minor has been postponed until Tuesday evening. Lawyer Couch will represent the commissioners and Lawyer Parkhurst will appear for Mr. Welch.

CAN'T DISPUTE THIS.

Because It is a Local Transaction and the Citizen is On the Spot to Confirm It.

The reader of this must concede two important points, first, what follows having taken place in North Adams can easily be investigated and proved to be true; second, there is a vast difference between opinions publicly expressed by a resident of North Adams in North Adams local papers and the opinions daily met with in the same paper's columns which were originally drafted in Michigan or Montana. Read this and acknowledge both points.

Mrs. Daniel Riddleworth of 104 1-2 East Main street, says: "For a long time I was troubled with pain in my back, dizziness in my head and lameness over my kidneys. There was a great deal of dull pain across the loins when standing on my feet and a sensation of languor completely mastered me. I read several accounts of Doan's Kidney Pills effecting marvelous cures. Some of them seemed just like my case and I asked my husband to go to Burlingame & Darby's for a box. I only took them for yet the distressing backache disappeared and all the stiffness and lameness vanished. I certainly can strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and I have no objections to your using my name as vouching for their being a good remedy for troubles that arise from disordered kidneys."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N.Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

THE THIRD ANNUAL EVENT.

Concert and Dance of Div. 10, A. O. H. Was Very Successful.

A large number of people found pleasure Thursday evening at the Columbia opera house, the occasion being the third annual concert and dance under the auspices of Div. 10, A. O. H. The concert program commenced at 8 o'clock and lasted over an hour and a half.

The Ideal orchestra furnished several pleasing selections; Lewis H. Walsh of Hoosick Falls, N. Y., contributed a fine baritone solo with an orchestral accompaniment; John Merritt in a character sketch and dance was obliged to answer to several encores; Miss A. McPartlin of Hoosick Falls, N. Y., a soprano who has often been heard in this city, added to her list of admirers by two selections; Joseph Downey, a tenor, and P. H. McManus, a clog dancer, both of Hoosick Falls, contributed to the completeness of the program; John Fallon, the favorite baritone, was heard with pleasure in two well rendered numbers; Misses McPartlin and Lane and Messrs. Walsh and Downey concluded the evening's entertainment with a quartet selection entitled "Sunset" in a very acceptable manner. T. F. Murphy was the accompanist and had the direction of the program.

Dancing was in order after the concert and was continued uninterrupted until past midnight. The evening was filled with pleasure and all congratulated the committee in charge for the enjoyment. John Durkin was floor director, Daniel Lawlor, assistant director and William Griffin, Henry Cann, Patrick Mahoney, William Buckley and Thomas Wallace were aids.

A Surprise to Mr. Mietzke.

Mr Mietzke's choir presented him today with a beautiful picture of the famous "Choir boys," as a token of their appreciation of his labor among them. The litho was handsomely framed and came from Dickinson's. A reception was to have been tendered Mr. and Mrs. Mietzke next week but their departure earlier than was then expected will make this impossible.

THREE TO ONE

And in the Right Direction.

It is not alone the wealthier classes who are using Postum Cereal, the grain coffee, instead of the old kind.

Working people have found, first, that 25c worth of Postum will go as far as 75c worth of coffee, and that while it is not as bitter as cheap coffee it has the deep, rich color of expensive Mocha and much the same mellow taste.

Postum is a food in liquid form, made at Battle Creek, Mich., of pure grains, and almost every old coffee drinker who has some ailment of body will find in less than ten days after leaving off berry coffee and using Postum Cereal, the health coffee, that in many cases the old trouble will be gone; in all cases there will be an improvement in health. There is a simple and good reason for this, as coffee is known by physicians to carry a positive percentage of poisonous alkaloids which directly attack stomach, heart and liver and from them to the nerves.

Beware of the fraudulent imitations of the original Postum Cereal Grain Coffee. Insist on Postum.

Prices Marked Down.

L. M. Barnes has gone through his entire stock and marked prices down to the lowest notch for thoroughly reliable goods. He is now offering diamonds at prices which would once have seemed incredible and the same may be said in regard to the large stock of watches to be found in the show cases. In watch repairing no one excels the work done by Barnes and his prices are not too high when the quality of his work is considered. Genuineness in workmanship and quality of goods sold has always been Mr. Barnes' motto, and his success in the past warrants him in continuing along the lines that have proved so satisfactory to himself and his patrons for over 30 years. You can depend on what you get when you purchase goods or have repairing done at Barnes'.

Splendid Success.

The regular meeting of Court Adams American Order of Foresters was held in Odd Fellows' hall Thursday evening Nine new members were initiated and quite a few applications were received The most pleasing part of the meeting was the report of the social committee which not only was satisfactory but the receipts went far beyond expectations Everyone acknowledged the Easter Monday ball to have been one of the finest ever held in town Especially should the committee in charge feel elated over the splendid success attained.

A Fine Concert.

The concert given in St Mark's parish house by the Rock Band Concert company Thursday evening was a musical treat The sweetness and accuracy of the different selections rendered by the Till family on the musical stones was wonderful and encores were given every selection Miss Etta Till, reciter, pleased the audience Miss Mildred was a favorite with those present, and her contralto singing was thoroughly enjoyed Mr Till himself proved a first class artist. They will play a return date here

Scottish Life and Character.

A Professor Dangerously Ill—Choice Models—Ripe Old Age—The Hotels.

Choice Models.

Williams college has procured some very choice models for use in the studies of anatomy and physiology. One of these is a skeleton, one side of which is supplied with rubber muscles, and by the use of it dissection, so far as the muscular system is concerned, can be successfully practiced without a human subject. There are only two other sets of such models in the world, one at Harvard and the other at the United States naval academy at Annapolis, and it is said the Williams college set is the most complete and perfect of the three The models are a very valuable addition to the apparatus of the college.

Ripe Old Age.

Our Leader

Once finding a desk which everyone wants, we can afford to make a sharp reduction in its price, in view of the certainty of its extensive sale. The demand is father to the figures.

An experience of many years, many desks, and many customers, enables us to select from over one hundred patterns of desks the one which we can most appropriately style our trade leader for this season. We present a rough engraving of it.

You can afford to bestow a little attention upon this desk, for we shall give a very low price to help the fall trade. It is made of a special selection of mahogany, and finished throughout in style, with old brass trimmings.

The Kidney Table desks are twice as convenient as an ordinary pattern. You are surrounded by your papers on every side. In this pattern there is a wide centre drawer, two upper side drawers, one lower drawer, one deep document drawer, and a large square closet.

There is a pleasant surprise for those who call to inquire the price of this desk.

TALK TO WORKINGMEN

That Was the Substance of Mr. Murphy's Address Thursday Evening.

THE HALL WAS WELL FILLED

Mr. Murphy Addresses Himself Particularly to Labor. It Should Strike Against the Drink Habit. A Very Successful Meeting.

Odd Fellows hall was well filled Thursday evening by the Murphy temperance meeting, nearly every seat being taken. After the opening exercises Rev. W. L. Tenney announced that the meeting this evening will be held at Wilson opera house instead of in the Baptist church, as was previously arranged, beginning at 7.30. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a mass meeting in Odd Fellows' hall, and in the evening at 7.30 there will be a meeting for men in Odd Fellows' hall and one for women in Wilson opera house. There will also be a meeting Saturday evening at Odd Fellows' hall.

Mr. Tenney said he was glad to see so much interest in the meetings. He said this was not alone Mr. Murphy's work, but the work of all the good people in the city, and he hoped the people would do all they could to help it along.

Rev. A. B. Church and Rev. J. C. Tebbetts made brief remarks, expressing their sympathy with the movement and the hope that it will result in great good to this city.

Mr. Murphy's talk was directed largely to workingmen. He said the only way to help men now is God's way. The law has done all it can for temperance and the only thing that remains to be done is to win men to temperance. There would not be such a demand for licenses if we would all sign the pledge and stop drinking. Mr. Murphy referred to the condition of State street and the effect of the liquor traffic there on other business and the value of property, and was glad to see that the papers were dealing with the subject.

Mr. Murphy said we ought to get up a workingmen's movement here and be men. Labor hasn't begun to take care of itself. There are few homes in which there is great poverty where the head of the house has not contributed to that poverty. We don't want any fighting. Our Christian work has been injured by fighting. What we want to do is to pull together in this great cause and win men to lives of temperance by reason and love.

I am delighted, said Mr. Murphy, with the increased attendance and interest in these meetings, and I believe that before they end great good will be accomplished. I hope there will also be an increase in church attendance. People criticise the churches, but it is a shame to do so. The gospel temperance movement does not come to criticise the church or any one else, not even the poor rum seller. All the rum seller has got is his money, and it is sometimes a question whether his money hasn't got him.

North Adams is a lively town—a perfect bee hive of industry. It is second to no city in the state in proportion to population. Good times are arriving and better wages with them, and if the workingmen will take care of their money they can share liberally in the blessings of good times. But they must keep down expenses. Labor spends too much money for rum. There are many labor strikes, but none against liquor. I would like to see a strike in North Adams against the ungodly habit of drink. Labor strikes for shorter hours, but liquor works 24 hours and never strikes for a reduction of time.

I want it understood, said Mr. Murphy, that I am a workingman. I've cut cord wood at 40 cents a cord and taken my pay in buckwheat. What do you think of that? Labor would not be so discontented as it is today if it was not carrying 200,000 saloons on its back. I don't say that every man who takes a drink will become a drunkard. Not by any means. But laboring men know less about how to drink than anyone else.

Here Mr. Murphy described a treating bout in a manner which provoked considerable merriment, but which practice is not confined altogether to the ranks of workingmen. Proceeding, he said the workingman ought to work for himself and his family, and to aim to secure a home of his own was one of the best things he could do. The purchase of a lot he considered a pretty good pledge, for when a man sees a home ahead it is a pretty good inducement to save his money and he is far less liable to pass it over the saloon bar.

Mr. Murphy spoke of the duty of Christian people toward young married couples. It is a pity, but nevertheless it is true, that many a young married woman is not familiar with cookery and all the various details of housekeeping. This is not strange in a town like this, where many of the girls are placed in factories at an early age and kept there until the time of their marriage. Christian people who will bear their duty in mind can do much to aid these young people by good counsel and advice. Not a few men have been driven to drink by an unsatisfactory condition of things at home, and this when the intentions of the wife were of the very best.

Mr. Murphy closed his address by citing instances in which the drink habit has ruined the lives of the learned as well as those in the lower walks of life, and with an earnest and eloquent appeal to the workingmen in particular to break from the dangers and risks which surround every man who yields to the seductions of the intoxicating cup.

The music was good, the singing being reinforced by cornet and piano, and at the close of the meeting many signed the pledge, the number including some who have tasted the bitterness of the drunkard's lot.

The New Era Cooking School is so named because it brings good eating without indigestion or headache—new era indeed! Lessons are free.

Murphy Meeting tonight at Wilson Hall. Be sure that you are there.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Ryan Company.

The leading paper in Oswego, N. Y., speaks of Mr. Ryan and his company as follows: Standing room was the only available inducement offered to persons who had neglected to purchase their tickets in time for the opening performance of the Daniel R. Ryan company at the Richardson theatre last evening. The best indication of the true merit of the piece was evident by the continual applause which the members of the cast received throughout the rendition of the play. Mr. Ryan, who is himself an actor of ability, is surrounded by a company of capable artists each and all being far above the average members of repertoire companies.—Palladium.

The City's New Fire Truck.

The fire board of the council met Thursday evening and decided to purchase a new hook and ladder truck. The new truck is of the Seagraves pattern and will meet all the requirements. It will carry 230 feet of ladder and will weigh some thing over 3300 pounds and will cost $1500. The truck will be furnished by C. M. Rich Combination company of Providence, R. I., and will arrive in about seven weeks. James H. Flagg with Chief Byars saw a similar truck at the company's ware rooms this week and they are perfectly satisfied that North Adams will have the best. The old truck will be for sale as soon as the new one arrives and will be disposed of at a bargain. The members of the fire board are J. H. Flagg, C. H. Cutting, George E. Perry and W. M. Brown.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The second quarterly meeting of the Council of the Brotherhood of St Andrew, which comprises all the chapters within the archdeaconry of Springfield, will be held at St. John's this evening. Evening prayer will be said at 6 o'clock. At 7.30 there will be a public meeting in the parish hall to which all are invited. Archdeacon Brooks, the Rev. Mr. Sedgwick and others of the clergy will attend besides a large number of out-of-town laymen. The attendance of young men is specially requested.

A Large Sum Realized.

The annual supper, sale and entertainment of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent closed at St. Joseph's hall Thursday evening. The supper was very well patronized and from that source alone for both evenings a goodly sum was realized. The entertainment program furnished much delight for the large audience. About $300 was realized from the event. The amount will be applied to the endowment of a bed at the hospital.

An Expensive Runaway.

This morning while some pipes were being loaded onto T. M. Lucy's delivery wagon at the store on Holden street the horse was struck by a pipe, and ran away. At Cutting's corner the wagon collided with Nichol's city express wagon and both were smashed. Breaking away from the wagon, the animal ran to the barn on Veazie street. The horse was owned by J. H. Conlon and had been hired by Mr. Lucy.

The Cooking School.

Why New Era? Because this particular cooking school brings in the new era of good eating without the usual penalty—indigestion. Lessons are free.

ONLY ONE PERMIT.

Mr. Martin is Much Exercised Over the Uncomplimentary Rumors.

The fact that eight applications for licenses to sell liquor at 53 State street, in the block owned by Bernard Martin, and the controversy which has arisen therefrom has caused Mr. Martin much annoyance. He has even been personally charged with having obtained a sum of money from the several applicants for the simple privilege of using his name and number.

Mr. Martin is highly indignant over the circulation of the rumors and at the same time he is not at all pleased with having his name used so freely in the applications. He states that he will give $100 to anyone that can show where he obtained one cent for such a privilege and the same amount will be paid in each instance. He also says he gave to Peter Harper, the first one who applied for the rental of the store for such a purpose, a written permit by which Mr. Harper can have the store should he obtain a license. To the others who applied he refused to give a permit of any kind and also refused to allow his name to be used. He did tell several that if Mr. Harper was not successful in getting a license the store would then be for rent.

N. V. A. SOCIETY

Will Build a Large Grand Stand. $2000 for Trotting Premiums.

The executive committee of the Hoosac Valley Agricultural society has decided to erect a mammouth grand stand this year and a committee composed of W. B. Plunkett, George Z. Dean, E. M. Meekins and George F. Miller has been appointed to direct its construction. The stand will occupy the space between the track and the fence at the southeast corner of the grounds and will seat at least 2000 people. It will be so erected as to obstruct the view of the occupants of "dead-head hill."

The committee has voted to appropriate $2000 for trotting premiums and $700 for other attractions. The fair will be held September 22 and 23 and all exhibitors must have their goods in place on the opening day.

Half the people in North Adams have more or less trouble from eating something that does not agree with them. The horses have little such difficulty; and they live as unnatural lives as we. The difference is that horses eat their proper food and we do not. Our mistake is easily remedied. This is what the New Era Cooking School is for—partly. Lessons are free.

SCATTERED BY DYNAMITE.

Unhappy Experience of Spectators of Blasting at the Five Roads.

There was an exciting accident at the Five Roads Thursday afternoon and it was remarkable that no one was seriously hurt.

Jerry Broderick was preparing to blast some rocks on Walter Daniels' place and dynamite had been provided for the purpose. The cartridges had been frozen for safe handling, and to thaw them a pan of sand was placed over a fire and the cartridges were laid on the sand. The thawing process was not watched closely enough and two cartridges took fire and were consumed. It is generally understood, of course, that dynamite is not exploded by fire, but by concussion.

Later a half-cartridge which had been placed in the pan for thawing was seen to be in danger of taking fire and Mr. Daniels picked it up to save it. He had not raised it far when he dropped it and it was exploded. There were half a dozen persons standing around, but strange enough, no one was seriously injured. Warren Chilson was cut on the ankle and thigh and a boy named Graham sustained a cut on the chin. The cartridge shell was pasteboard, and it is thought less damage was done than would have been the case if the explosive had been in a metallic shell.

The happening gave the spectators a great scare and the probability is that when any blasting is done in that neighborhood hereafter the operator will have plenty of elbow room.
